Dear Sir:

This paper is submitted as an attachment to Applicant Initiated Interview Request Form (PTOL-413A).

Brief Description of Arguments to be Presented:

- Clarify distinctions between Moshir et al. (U.S. Publication 2002/0100036) and Applicant's claimed invention:
  - The patches of Moshir do not correspond to the patching mechanism of Applicant's claimed invention.
  - Moshir does not teach or suggest a particular update agent that is executable on a first computer running a first type of operating system and a second computer running a second type of operating system.
